25 On November 19, 2012, defendant Duffy Dashner was released on a $150,000 bond, 26 $100,000 of which was secured by his mother. He was ordered to reside in the third party custody of an individual who signed his bond. As a condition of release, Mr. Dashner was placed on electronic monitoring. Initially, he was not allowed to leave his house for purposes other than work, legal, and medical appointments. On April 30, at the recommendation of pretrial services, the Court modified his conditions such that he now has a curfew from 11:00 p.m to 7:00 a.m. According to pretrial services, Mr. Dashner has been compliant with his conditions of release.

27
28 Mr. Dashner now requests that the Court modify his bond to permit him to travel to 29 Chicago on a redeye flight the night of June 12 to pick up his 7-year old daughter and return with 30 her to California on the afternoon of June 13. His daughter will be spending the summer with

1 him in California, and she is too young to travel on her own. Mr. Dashner will fly into Chicago 2 O'Hare airport and his daughter will be dropped off to meet him, so he will not ever leave the 3 airport. He will provide his itinerary to pretrial services prior to travel.

4 Pretrial services officer Brad Wilson is in agreement with this proposal. The government 5 has no objection.
